

Are Real Designations Are As Follows (Cosmic)

Ancients, Monks, Shamans and Grand Shamans
(Indigo's) (Starseeds) (Crystals) and (Rainbow)

This comparable to the illuminati's system of divinity but isn't ours at all and was invented by the exiled old souls. (Divinity)

Angels, Arch Angels, Saints and God(s)

(Monotheism and Polytheism)

Are cosmic designations have nothing to do with monotheism or polytheism it's completely outside of both models but isn't an occultist based system either. Because the occult created monotheism and polytheism models. I have reason to believe that the freemasons are in total control of monotheist and the eastern star order has total control over the polytheist model because they created it and so did the three hundred exiled old souls who created the illuminati, freemasons and eastern star order the prick fucks.

But our operations on earth was as follows it was to infiltrate the divine system and destroy it once and for all break down every thing from it's foundations all the way to top of the it's egimatic structure.
